GREAT AWAKENING 2011!

2011 School for Congregational Learning

Saturday, August 27th, 2011

West Des Moines Christian Church

What is School for Congregational Learning? It is a one-day training opportunity for all individuals in the congregation to receive training, inspiration, guidance, and direction for doing the work of the church.

The day's scheduled events include Worship, a morning workshop of your choice, a family style lunch, a keynote speaker, and an afternoon workshop of your choice. Cost for everything is only $20 per adult, free for infants-4 years old, and $5 for ages 5-18.

Free Childcare provided by the West Des Moines Christian Church, for childcare you must make reservations through the church by August 15, phone: 515-223-1639.

Workshop Opportunities and descriptions of classes are available both in your church office and on the Upper Midwest Christian Church web site www.uppermidwestcc.org

Registration forms and a list of "Frequently Asked Questions" along with any other information you might need are also available on the web site or from your church office.

Lunch is included in your registration cost, however if you have special dietary needs, call the West Des Moines Church office by August 15: 515-223-1639

Our Keynote speaker will be presented after lunch, before your afternoon workshops. This year our keynote speaker will be Christian Piatt! Christian speaks, preaches and facilitates workshops nationally on congregational transformation, young adult spirituality, church and technology, faith and culture and postmodern spirituality. He consults with religious and educational institutions on communications, social media and public relations. He is a musician, spoken word artist and co-founder of Milagro Christian Church in Pueblo, Colorado. Christian brings new ideas on understanding the Church in today's changing culture.
